Until Death.

There are no words of constancy, dear friend,
To love me, should I die, thy whole life long,
And love no more till thy whole life end—Nay, it were rash and wrong.

If thou couldst love another, be it so; I would not care, for I should love thee too,
To love thee, I should love thee, I should love thee,
To love thee, I should love thee, I should love thee.

My heart is true, I trust, will walk with thee In clearer light than glows those earthly forms, Above the jealousies and evil loves, Which sow this life with thorns.

Thou wouldst not feel my shadow's care, If after death my soul should linger here; Men's hearts are made of flesh and blood, Love's presence, warm and true.

It would not make me sleep more peacefully Than thou wert waiting on my life in view, For my poor sake, what love thou hast for me, Bestow it ere I go!

Carve not upon a stone when I am dead, The praises which my memory would give;
To women's graves—a tardy recompense—But speak them while I live.

How can the heavy marble on my head To any glory give, or any praise; Let small blooms grow there, and let grasses And rain drops fall through.

Thou wilt meet many fairer and more gay, Than I, but trust me, thou canst never find One who will love and serve thee night and day, With a more single mind.

Forget me when I die! The violets Above my rest will bloom as blue, Nor miss my tears; even nature's self forgets;
But while I live, be true.

General Items.
They have a species of swine in Kentucky that have a solid hoof like a horse. They came from Africa.

The London Times of May 12th, has a warm congratulatory editorial on the successful opening of the American Centennial Exhibition.

The Emperor of Russia will be accompanied on his journey to the United States by a magnificent diplomatic suite, including Prince Gortchakoff.

A dispatch from Rome to the New York Herald says the Pope is expected to be in Italy, and is obliged to be supported by two prelates of the Church.

In the Louisiana contested election case six members have agreed to report in favor of seating Sizer, Democrat, and three in favor of seating Murry, Republican.

It is considered a matter of tone with colored Congressmen who have been in Washington long enough to afford a carriage and span, to have a Caucasian coachman.

The Spring Meeting of the Sacramento Jockey Club will be held at Agricultural Park, Sacramento, commencing Tuesday, June 6th, 1876, and ending Friday, June 9th.

The 2nd figure up 300 electoral votes in the Union, of which it thinks 152 may be counted on for the Democratic candidate for President, 230 for the Republican, and 72 doubtful.

Don't head the Massachusetts delegation to the Cincinnati nominating Convention.
Don't mention Conkling with his war minister to England, and make a controversy.

The lands of Miller & Lutz, on the west side of the San Joaquin, extend a distance of sixty eight miles, and this body is from five to forty miles wide. On the east side they have other smaller tracts.

The Sacramento Grange has issued invitations to the 300 bodies of the Order on the Pacific coast to meet in Sacramento by California.
They have just been shown for the first time, and many had to be thrown down or suspended of in mid air.

A safe deposit vault just completed in London is deemed invulnerable. It is sunk forty-six feet into the ground, with walls of brick and concrete six feet thick. Inside this structure is the safe, three feet thick, made of fire-brick and unbreakable iron. The metal doors weigh four tons each, and are swung by hydraulic power.

In Algeria there is a river of granite ink. It is formed by the union of two streams, one coming from a region of ferruginous soil, and the other draining a peat swamp. The water of the former is strongly impregnated with iron, the latter with gallic acid. When the two waters mingle the acid of the one unites with the iron of the other, forming a true ink.

We learn from an exchange that a Detroit firm recently moved six and a half sacks of its catalogue to Windsor, Ontario, just across Detroit river, and there mailed them to persons in the United States, saving $1.70 by the transaction. The charge for what is known as "third class mail matter" in the United States is four times as much as is charged for the same class in Canada.

Petroleum is abundant in the Pennsylvania oil region that the more wells a man has the poorer he is likely to be. Wells that were brought $250,000, are now at $15, 000, and one man at Titusville, who lately had an income of $100,000, is hardly worth $10, 000. The exceeding superabundance of the results it almost values, and it has declined from $6 to sixty cents per barrel.

A reaction has taken place in favor of silver and it is probable that it will soon be restored to favor. Silver coin is becoming scarce in San Francisco, owing to the shipments East and to China, and the passage of the act of Congress to substitute it for fractional currency, together with the increased demand for it from foreign use has a tendency to appreciate its value and bring it into favor again.

The business done by the Carson Mint during the month of April is as follows: Double eagles, $288,080; eagles, $128,000; half eagles, $178,000; dimes, $48,000. Total coinage $642,080. One hundred and twenty-five silver bars were made, worth $187, 635. No trade dollars are now being coined at the Mint, which is running to its full capacity of gold coin and fractional silver coin.

Louis Jacob is the name of an old man living in Vienna, Michigan. He was born of French parents in Detroit, in the year 1770, and is now in his 105th year. He has had seven children, six of which are now living. The oldest being eighty and the youngest sixty.
One of his daughters had a family of twenty-five children. He always uses tobacco, and does not use tobacco and has led a temperate life.

The Treasury Department officers begin to believe that as late as $10,000,000 of the fractional currency has been lost or destroyed in one way or another, and will never be presented for redemption in silver coin. If this be true, as it may very well be, the demand for billion will be decreased to that extent, and the Government will gain the difference. But it is not likely that the market for silver will feel the effect of it.

Prat Lent Dominique was assassinated during his flight from Fort San Felipe. While being escorted by the French Consul, a son of Mont Plaster stepped up to him and said: "You shall not escape, for I shall avenge the blood of my father, whom you massacred on the 3d of May, 1875," and presenting a revolver shot him dead on the spot. His body was then thrown onto a dunghill and left unburied for three days.

The Naval Bill saves nearly five millions, and it will be difficult for the Secretary to find money in the present bill to equidate by hundreds of thousands in converting smooth-bore rifled ordnance through the agency of Norman Ward or any other inventor. There will be less money to spend on improvements of steam engines, and in building new ships out of a few old timbers, under the application for repairs. The bill prepared by a sub-committee reduces the number of enlisted men in the navy from 5200 to 7300.

The New York Times Philadelphia special says I had several conversations with the French, German and Spanish exhibitors, and everywhere I was assured that the "Paris" was a decided success; nor was this assurance given to inquiring Americans simply as a matter of courtesy or compliment, but from all sorts and kinds of people—from French workmen, clad in the hideous blue blouses of their class; from German exhibitors busy among their wares, and from French officials, gorgons in Court uniforms, covered with decorations and rich with gold lace. I have heard the same opinion expressed.
